Leaders are matched one-on-one with mentors from Disability:IN Corporate Partners and experience an all-expense paid trip to the Disability:IN Annual Conference where they network and interview with companies like Boeing, Facebook, JPMorgan Chase, and Microsoft.

LGBTQ, Black, and veteran individuals are especially encouraged to apply for the 2021 class.

My mentorship with Bob V. was life-changing, and not just because he helped me land a job at Northrop Grumman.

He also made me a better person by helping me see the value I have, even as my disability is progressing. Bob showed me how to be successful in the workplace with my disability.
